FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Artists & Musicians Support Clendenen

Sunday November 2nd

Fortuna's Veterans' Hall will be filled with original artwork and the sound of live music on Sunday November 2nd as artists and musicians come together in support of Clif Clendenen for 2nd District Supervisor. The event will feature an exhibit of original works for sale by artists Mike Guerriero, Dawn McComb, Cat McAdams, Amy Leon, Valerie Carmen and Susan Campbell. Musicians performing will be Sue Moon, Susan Anderson and Friends, Mary Jo Casasanta and the ClifTones. Clendenen will be on hand to meet people and discuss campaign issues as attendees dine on BBQ burgers, polish dogs, chicken filets and chili with beer, wine and cider. This event represents a final chance for 2nd District voters to meet and speak with Clif Clendenen before the November 4th election. Hours are 2:00 to 6:00 on Sunday November 2nd, at the Veterans' Hall in Fortuna. Admission will be free while proceeds from the sale of artwork, food and beverages will benefit the Clendenen for Supervisor campaign.

Clif Clendenen is a candidate for Humboldt County supervisor from the Second District. For more information on Clendenen and the issues, or to volunteer or donate, contact his campaign headquarters in Fortuna at 725-4146 or visit his website at www.clendenen4supervisor.com.
